Who am i?

I keep on asking

For i know not of the answer

Who are you?

I keep receiving

As an answer, as a torture

Am i human, am i monster

Am i lonely, am i lovely

Am i what? Cmon keep saying

Everything you have in mind

All those things you say out loud

Yeah, that’s you, for sure, no guessing

All your thought, those feelings, burning

All at once and nothing at all

Burn and fly

Rip and cry

Don’t stand still, just dance

Go wild

So, again

Who am i?

Actually who cares, not i

For i shall not need to know

It will come to me in time

Soon, before i waste my lines
